ICBC Cost Savings - at what Cost?

Thursday, July 7, 2011

To: All COPE 378 members at ICBC

The Union has received a copy of the following communication, (click here). While we recognize ICBC’s financial responsibilities and understand change is happening throughout ICBC, we are concerned that some cost increases are a result of ICBC deciding to "accomplish more than (they) first thought", with the effect that our members are expected to do more with less.

We remind you that you are in bargaining right now for a renewal Collective Agreement. What this means is your wages and working conditions are under negotiation right now and your suggestions, if any, for cost savings should be mindful of your Collective Agreement and the working conditions of not just you but of your co-workers.

If you are not sure about a suggestion, do not hesitate to speak to your job steward or our office.

Your ICBC Union Representatives,

Vic Foth
Kerrie Irving
Bonnie Merriman
Sarah Melsness
Kelly Quinn
Jaime Zygmunt, Senior Union Representative
Jeff Gillies, COPE ICBC Vice President
