No Personal Harassment

(a) Prohibition Against Personal Harassment

The Employer recognized the right of all employees to work in an environment which is free of personal harassment. Accordingly, the personal harassment of any Employee is prohibited.

(b) Definition of Personal Harassment

- (i) Personal harassment is objectionable conduct or comment directed towards a specific person or persons which serves no legitimate work purpose, and which has the effect of creating an intimidating, humiliating, hostile or offensive work environment.

Personal harassment includes, but is not limited to, any discrimination on the basis of race, national or ethnic origin, colour, citizenship, place or residence, age, sex, sexual preference or orientation, marital status, family status, number of dependents, pregnancy or childbirth, physical or mental disability, conviction for which a pardon has been granted, political or religious affiliation or beliefs, or membership or activity in any trade union.

Whether or not conduct is seen as "unwelcome" will depend on the circumstances of each case. However, the complainant need not expressly reject the conduct or object to the conduct in order to complain about it. It is sufficient if the harasser knows or ought reasonably to have known that the conduct was unwelcome.

The definition of sexual harassment is not meant to inhibit interactions or relationships based on mutual consent or normal social contact between employees.

(d) Employer Obligations

The Employer must at all times act appropriately to preserve and promote a work environment which is free from personal harassment.

Accordingly, the Employer will undertake discipline or other appropriate actions against any person who engages in personal harassment in violation of this Article. All Employees in the bargaining unit must refrain from personal harassment or be subject to discipline or other action by the Employer up to and including discharge. Any such disciplinary or other action by the Employer must be for "just cause".

If, however, personal harassment is alleged with respect to any job selection, the matter must be grieved within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of receipt by an employee of notice of their unsuccessful candidacy. These time limits may be extended at any time by mutual agreement between the Union and the Employer.
