

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

BETWEEN:

Catalyst Paper

(hereinafter referred to as the "Employer")

PARTY OF THE FIRST PART

AND:

MoveUP, Local 378 of the Canadian Office and Professional Employees Union

(hereinafter referred to as the "Union")

PARTY OF THE SECOND PART

WHEREAS:

- A. The Parties are bound to a Collective Agreement effective from May 1, 2017 through April 30, 2021 (the "Collective Agreement").
- B. The Parties have engaged in collective bargaining to reach an agreement to renew the Collective Agreement.

THEREFORE:

1. The Parties agree that the Collective Agreement is renewed for a term of four (4) years from May 1, 2021 to April 30, 2025 with the changes set out in the Memorandum of Agreement subject to the following conditions.
2. The Parties agree that this Memorandum of Agreement is subject to ratification by the Parties' respective principals.
3. The Parties agree to recommend this Memorandum of Agreement, without reservation, to their respective principals.
4. The changes to the Collective Agreement contained in this Memorandum of Agreement will be effective from May 1, 2021 unless specifically stated otherwise.

5. All items not addressed herein will be considered withdrawn on a without prejudice basis.
6. Any amendment to this Memorandum of Agreement must be confirmed in writing by both Parties.
7. The Parties agree that this Memorandum of Agreement is, to this date, the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to collective bargaining for the renewal of a Collective Agreement.
8. If this Memorandum is ratified, the Union agrees to provide the Employer with a draft copy of the resultant Collective Agreement both in "hard-copy" and digital form within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of completion of the ratification vote and the Employer shall thereafter have fifteen (15) calendar days within which to respond to the draft Collective Agreement provided by the Union. The Parties agree the objective will be to have a finalized Collective Agreement within sixty (60) calendar days of the date of completion of the ratification vote.

UP	Article 15 Arbitration	Broke up Article 15.01 into smaller paragraphs for ease of reading. Alternate Dispute Mechanism List of Arbitrators Revised per ER comments of November 3, 2023 and simplified the ADR language.

ARTICLE 15 – ARBITRATION

15.01 If a grievance or dispute is not settled pursuant to Article 14 (Grievance Procedure), it may then be referred to either expedited arbitration per Article 15.04 (Expedited Arbitration—Alternate Dispute Resolution ADR) or full arbitration.

Within ten (10) days of completion of the procedure described in Article 14, either party may notify the other in writing of its intention to proceed to arbitrate a matter remaining in dispute.

The parties will then forthwith endeavor to agree upon the selection of a single arbitrator to hear the dispute.

If unable to agree upon the selection of an arbitrator, they will within thirty (30) days apply to have an arbitrator appointed under the provisions of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.

The arbitrator shall have jurisdiction to determine whether a grievance is arbitrable but shall have no jurisdiction to alter the terms of this Agreement.

15.02 The arbitrator shall hear the dispute within thirty (30) days of their appointment and shall hand down a final and binding decision within a further fifteen (15) days.

15.03 The parties agree that each will pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator.

15.04 Expedited Arbitration - Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR)

Expedited arbitration is intended to provide a timely resolution with minimal formality.

The terms are:

- a) Mutual agreement by both parties is required;
- b) Neither side shall be represented by lawyers hired for this purpose although the Parties are free to consult with legal counsel prior to the hearing;
- c) Neither side will call witnesses if appropriate and by mutual agreement;
- d) The parties will agree to a single arbitrator in a timely fashion. If agreement cannot be reached, either party may apply to the Labour Relations Board to appoint the arbitrator;

Dec 12/23
AES

- e) Every effort will be made to complete the hearing in one working day;
- f) The award will be provided in writing within ten (10) working days;
- g) Awards will be limited to the decision with a summary of the arbitrator's reasons;
- h) All expedited arbitration decisions will be without prejudice and will not set precedent or be referred to in subsequent grievances;
- i) Each party shall pay their own costs and expenses of the arbitration and one-half (1/2) of the remuneration and disbursements or expenses of the arbitrator; and
- j) Should either party wish to withdraw the grievance from this expedited process and refer to a full arbitration they may do so with written notice to the other party, and to the expedited arbitrator if one has been secured.

In these circumstances, the party opting out shall be responsible for any cancellation fees charged by the expedited arbitrator.

List of Arbitrators

The parties agree to consider the following list of arbitrators under Article 15 (Arbitration) before considering other arbitrators appointed by the BC Labour Relations Board:

- Mark Brown
- Rick Coleman
- Jacque de Aguayo
- Elaine Doyle
- John Hall
- Alison Matacheskie

ARTICLE 7 – LAYOFF, RECALL AND SEVERANCE

7.01 If a reduction in staff is necessary the Union shall be consulted by the Company and privileged to present recommendations which will be considered by the Company prior to a decision by the Company. In cases where time does not permit such prior consultation the Company will take temporary action only until the recommendations of the Union can be considered.

7.02 In the event of a reduction in staff, the most junior employee shall be laid off first and the most senior employee last.

7.03 Layoff

- a) An employee affected by a layoff, reduction of staff or position elimination shall have the option of displacing an employee with less seniority in the same or lower salary group provided they have the qualifications required to perform the job.
- b) If no same or lower salary group position exists the employee shall be allowed to displace any employee with less seniority in the next higher group available.
- c) The displaced employee shall follow the process established above in displacing employees with less seniority than them.

The trial basis may be extended by mutual agreement between the parties.

- e) The Company will provide on-the-job or special training as required during the trial period.

7.04 Severance Pay

- a) For permanent loss of employment, notice of layoff shall be given an employee, other than a probationary employee, or employees hired for work of known temporary durations, two weeks before they are scheduled to be laid off. Where an employee is laid off due to a Company decision to permanently eliminate a position then that employee may elect to terminate and not be eligible for recall as described in Article 6.11 of this agreement [this appears to be an incorrect cross-reference. Parties agree to correct it to proper article reference.]

If the employee makes such election within thirty (30) days of the date the elimination is deemed permanent then the employee will receive severance pay on the following basis:

Years of Employment	Severance Allowance weeks/year
1 st ten years	2 weeks
Subsequent years	1 week
Maximum Severance Allowance	52 weeks

For employees with a minimum of one (1) year employment during their last period of continuous service, severance allowance shall not be less than four (4) weeks pay. ~~The employee may elect to defer receipt of this payment for up to 12 months.~~

- b) No employee shall be eligible for severance payment under both Article 10 (Technological Change) and Article 6 (Seniority).
- c) Where a temporary curtailment of mill operation is planned the Company will endeavor to give the Union as much notice as possible.
- d) Enhancements in Severance Allowance achieved by the CEP (Unifor) through collective bargaining will be incorporated into this agreement.

7.05 Recall Process

- a) An employee who is laid off shall be subject to recall in order to seniority, subject to their qualifications to fill the available position, but shall have no rights as an employee under this agreement save the right of recall in order of seniority and welfare and benefit coverage in accordance with 6.11 (b) [this appears to be an incorrect cross-reference. Parties agree to correct it to proper article reference.]

Employees shall retain their seniority for one year from the date of layoff, plus one additional month for each year of continuous service up to an additional 12 months.

Employees who are on the recall list and are called back for temporary work assignments shall have their recall rights extended by one (1) day for every one (1) day or part thereof worked.

- b) The following Company-paid benefit plans will remain in effect for employees with one (1) or more years seniority for six (6) months and for employees with more than four (4) months but less than one (1) year's seniority for three (3) months while on layoff:
- (i) Group Life Insurance Plan
 - (ii) Provincial Health Plans and Extended Health Benefit Plan
 - (iii) Dental Care Plan

7.06 Recall List

- a) Any notice of recall to an employee other than a probationary employee who has been laid off shall be made by registered mail to the last known address of the employee.
- b) Any regular or regular part-time employee with six (6) months or more of service, who is laid-off due to lack of work or redundancy, shall be placed on the recall list for a period of one (1) year.
- c) The employee must respond to the recall notice within 7 days of issuance or lose all right of seniority. Bona fide reasons for failure to report shall not deprive an employee of their recall rights.
- Notice of recall to an employee who has been laid-off shall be made by registered mail to the Union with a copy to the employee. The employee must respond to such notice within ten (10) days of receiving it.
- d) The Employer shall allow ten (10) days from an acceptance of an offer of recall, for the employee to commence duties, provided that, where the employee is required to give a longer period of notice to another employer, such longer period, not exceeding one (1) month, shall be allowed.
