7.02

- (a) A snapshot will be taken of the employee complement, by category of employee, as of the date of ratification. This snapshot will form the base employee complement for the Employer. Should an Employer increase the hours in a regular work week beyond the thirty-two and one-half (32 ½) hours in existence at the time of ratification, the Employer will ensure the employee complement does not fall below the snapshot number.
- (b) The Employer shall decide at the time of ratification whether to select a thirty-two and one-half (32 ½) hour or a thirty-five (35) hour week. A one-time subsequent change to the regular hours of work shall require sixty (60) days written notice to both the Union and the employees.
- (c) Notwithstanding Article 7.02(b) if, after increasing the hours of work to thirty-five (35) hours per week, the need for the employee complement falls below the snapshot number, before considering layoffs, the Employer shall then return the hours of work to the thirty-two and one-half (32 ½) hour per week which existed at the time of ratification.

The Union will issue a Letter of Understanding adjusting the regular work week and regular hours of work to any Employer choosing to remain at the thirty-two and one-half (32 ½) hour week.

7.03 Hours of work as provided in Clauses 7.01 and 7.02 may be varied subject to mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union.

- a) The Employer agrees that any change to the regular work day and/or regular work week will be implemented only by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union. Such changes could encompass a nine-day fortnight or a four-day work week.
- b) The Employer's agreement to nine-day fortnight or four-day work week changes requested by union members will not be unreasonably withheld, although it is understood that it is more difficult to provide such agreement for smaller offices or for unique positions.
- c) Employees at their option shall be able to carry over flex days or have them paid out as they so choose.

- 7.04 A one (1) hour lunch period will be provided and taken within the two (2) hours in the middle of the regular working day, precise time to be arranged between the Employer and employee. The lunch period may be shortened by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union, from one (1) hour but not less than one-half (1/2) hour.
- 7.05 Two (2) relief periods per day of fifteen (15) minutes each, one (1) in the morning and one (1) in the afternoon, shall be taken without loss of pay.
- 7.06 Overtime Premiums:
All time worked before or after the regularly established working day, or as varied by mutual agreement as per Clause 7.03, shall be considered as overtime and paid at the rate of one hundred-fifty percent (150%) of the employee's prorated hourly rate for the first two (2) hours, and two hundred percent (200%) thereafter.
- 7.07 All time worked on Saturday shall be considered as overtime and paid at the rate of one hundred-fifty percent (150%) of the employee's prorated hourly rate for the first two (2) hours, and two hundred percent (200%) thereafter. All time worked on a Sunday or on a statutory holiday, as provided in Article 8 or on a day granted in lieu thereof, shall be considered as overtime and paid at the rate of two hundred percent (200%) of the employee's prorated hourly rate.
- 7.08 All employees requested to work overtime beyond the regular work day shall be allowed a one (1) hour paid meal period at the regular prorated hourly rate of pay, provided such overtime is in excess of two (2) hours' work. The meal period may be taken before, during or after the overtime work as may be appropriate and mutually agreed.
- 7.09 Employees who are called in during regularly scheduled days off or vacations, or who are called back to work outside the regular working day, other than for regularly scheduled overtime, shall receive a minimum of four (4) hours' pay at the overtime rates, provided the employee reports for such work.
- 7.10 Regularly scheduled overtime shall mean overtime for which at least twenty-four (24) hours' notice has been given. Emergency overtime shall mean overtime for which less than one (1) days' notice is given. Employees requested to work beyond their regular shift with less than twenty-four (24) hours' notice that is emergency overtime, shall work up to two (2) hours under regular overtime provisions. Work beyond the two (2) hour allowable period shall entitle the employee to not less than two (2) hours' additional pay at overtime rates. The meal hour allowance in the foregoing Clause 7.08 shall be separate and apart from the above premium provisions.
- 7.11 Overtime shall be on a voluntary basis and, all things being equal will be distributed among all members of the office staff.
- 7.12 Employees who work overtime may elect to take time off in lieu of overtime pay but such time off must be taken at a time mutually agreed upon with the Employer. The length of time off with pay shall be equal to the straight time equivalent of the overtime earnings.

24.06 Job Share Partner Absence

Where an employee in a job share arrangement is temporarily absent from work for any reason, the Employer shall first offer the work to the remaining partner in the job share. In such instances, the extra hours worked, up to a maximum of 6.5 hours per day and 32.5 hours per week, will be paid at straight time rates.

The remaining partner will retain their status as a Regular part-time employee for the duration of the partner's absence. If the remaining partner declines to accept the extra hours the Employer may fill the vacancy with a Temporary employee.

24.07 Filling a Job Share Vacancy

In the event one of the partners leaves the job share and where the parties agree the job share should continue, the vacancy will be dealt with as follows:

If no suitable partner can be found, the remaining partner will have the option of filling the position on a full-time basis.

If the remaining partner declines the option, s/he will be placed directly onto the recall list and the full-time position will be posted.

24.08 Termination of a Job Share Arrangement

Individual job share arrangements may be terminated by the Employer with a minimum of sixty (60) days' notice.

If the Employer terminates the job share arrangement, the job share partners will revert back to their previous positions and conditions of employment, and any other employee displaced as a result will have access to the provisions of Article 14.

If one partner voluntarily leaves, the remaining partner will have the option of filling the vacant portion of the position without posting. If the remaining partner declines the option of filling the full time position s/he will be placed directly onto the recall list and the full time position will be posted.

If both job share partners agree to terminate the job share arrangement, the job share partners will revert to their previous positions and conditions of employment, and any other employee displaced as a result will be placed directly on the recall list without access to the provisions of Article 14.
