MoveUP YAC Offers Health & Safety Courses for Youth Members

Wednesday, October 4, 2017

To: MoveUP Young Members in the Lower Mainland

The BC Federation of Labour Health and Safety Centre is offering 8-hour health and safety education courses in December. We have attached a list here for you to review.

The MoveUP Youth Action Committee is pleased to sponsor five youth workers (30 years of age and under) to these courses.

Courses run from December 5 to December 19, 2017.

We will arrange for a leave of absence from your employer should you require one in order to attend. To register, you must contact the committee by completing the registration form attached here and select the course that you are interested in attending and forward to Marilyn here. The deadline for registering is: October 20, 2017.

These course have limited space and may sell out quickly so please contact us no later than October 20, 2017. We will register attendees based on availability.
