

Anna Chambers has a BA in Education and has taught elementary and high school students for 20 years. She became involved with Pacific Post Partum Support Society 10 years ago and her passion has been working with new mothers and parents dealing with perinatal mental health issues. She now works as a postpartum support group facilitator, telephone support counsellor and outreach educator. Anna lives in Surrey with her two teenage children.