

Presenter Will Shelling is an Equity and Inclusion Strategist, academic, and avid home cook, living on the unceded, ancestral, and occupied lands of the Musqueam, Squamish and Tsleil-Waututh people. His approach to social justice is both informed by his academic training and lived experience as a mixed-race Black man.

FUNDAMENTALS OF ANTI-OPPRESSION

MAY 18,
2021
AT 6 PM

Anti-oppression 101 dives deeper than your typical diversity and inclusion workshop. In this workshop, participants are given the opportunity to explore systemic oppression, social justice, privilege, identity and allyship through a variety of engaging activities. Through self-reflection, community-based inquiry, lessons from history and collaborative problem solving, participants gain the knowledge and skills to view the world through an anti-oppressive lens.
