Marah Carnes:

Marah Carnes has been a proud CCCU employee for 19 years, originally from Oceanside and now at the RC. Over the last 5 years, Marah has worked diligently as a steward and as an Executive Councillor since being elected in May 2022. Since then she has proven to be a strong voice for the members at CCCU, advocating through your standing and bargaining committees. Her efforts and engagement have shown her dedication to the foundations of unionism with a passion for recruiting and supporting new job stewards, hosting new member orientations, and as a delegate at the 2021 MoveUP Convention, contributing to the largest decision-making body of our local, ensuring the MoveUP Constitution is not only upheld but updated to ensure MoveUP is the progressive union of choice we strive to be. Marah continues to build solidarity with the members she represents, making her an excellent choice for Executive Council.

Misty Parsons:

My name is Misty Parsons, I am running for Executive Council as I would like to continue to be the voice of our members and to stand up for change when it is needed. I have been on the standing committee and worked very hard towards advocating for permanent Work from home and getting that Letter of Understanding added to our Collective agreement . I am a trained Job steward level 2 and hold a seat at our next round of bargaining .
