ARTICLE 7 –WORKPLACE BULLYING AND HARASSMENT AND PROTECTION FROM CLIENT ABUSE

7.01 Introduction

- a) The Parties recognize the right of all employees to work in an environment free from discrimination, bullying and harassment. All parties, including employees, have responsibilities under British Columbia legislation including the Workers Compensation Act, Occupational Health and Safety Regulations and the Human Rights Code.
- b) Furthermore, the Parties agree that should any new protected classes be added to the Human Rights Code of British Columbia during the life of this Agreement, they will be deemed to be included in this language.
- c) Neither the Union nor the Employer in carrying out their obligations under this Agreement shall discriminate in matters of hiring, training, promotion, transfer, lay-off or discharge or otherwise because of a protected ground.
- d) The Employer and the Union recognize the right of all employees to work in an environment which shows respect for an employees' health, safety, and physical and mental well-being. As a result, all efforts shall be deployed to prevent and correct any situation and any conduct liable to compromise the health and wellbeing of an employee or deteriorate the work environment.

7.02 General Provisions

- a) An employee with an allegation is called the Complainant, and the person who they are making a complaint against, is called the Respondent.
- b) All complaints will be kept strictly confidential by the Complainant, the Respondent, the Employer, the Union, and the Witnesses.

7.03 Definitions

- a) Discrimination

Discrimination shall include the denial of opportunity to a person or a class of people, based on any of the grounds prohibited under the Human Rights Code.

- b) Bullying and Harassment

Bullying and harassment is defined as conduct directed against another person that involves comments and/or actions that a reasonable person knows, or ought to know, would cause offence, humiliation, or intimidation. Bullying and harassment denies an individual their dignity or respect by creating an intimidating, humiliating, hostile, or offensive work environment and which may, or may not, be linked to the protected grounds specified in the Human Rights Code.

- c) Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is an example of bullying and harassment that is linked to a protected ground specified in the Human Rights Code. Sexual harassment includes conduct or comments made by a person who knows, or ought reasonably to know, are unwelcome and that create an intimidating, hostile or poisoned work environment. It also includes unnecessary or inappropriate touching, including touching which is expressed as being unwanted or uninvited; suggestive remarks or other verbal abuse with a sexual connotation; repeated or persistent leering at a person's body; sexual solicitation or advances or sexual assault. Sexual harassment further includes, but is not limited to:

- i) Uninvited or unwelcomed touching or close physical contact;
- ii) Sexual advances;
- iii) Comments made about a person's gender identity, gender expression or sexual orientation (eg; including intentionally using incorrect pronouns to refer to an individual);
- iv) Displaying of sexually offensive or derogatory pictures, cartoons, or other material (including materials on computers, i.e. email);
- v) Unwelcome questions or sharing of information regarding a person's sexuality, sexual activity, or sexual orientation;

- viii) Requests for sexual favours;
- ix) Unwanted questions or comments of a sexual nature;
- x) Offensive jokes or comments of a sexual nature about an employee or client;
- xi) Propositions of physical intimacy;
- xii) Gender-related verbal abuse, threats or taunting;
- xiii) Paternalism based on gender which a person feels undermines their self-respect or position of responsibility;
- xiv) Any form of voyeurism.

d) Personal Harassment

Personal harassment is objectionable conduct or comments that are either repeated or persistent, or a single serious incident directed towards a specific person or persons which serves no legitimate work purpose, and which has the effect of creating an intimidating, humiliating, hostile or offensive work environment. The fact that a person does not explicitly object to harassing behaviour or appears to be going along with it does not mean that the behaviour is not harassing and does not mean that it has been assented to.

Personal harassment includes, but is not limited to the following:

- i) Derogatory, demeaning or disrespectful comments, jokes or slurs made about a person or a group of people;
- ii) Physical threats or intimidation;
- iii) The display or distribution of derogatory, demeaning or disrespectful posters, pictures, cartoons or drawings, whether in print form or via e-mail or other electronic means;
- iv) Yelling, using offensive language, uttering threats, coercion or bullying;
- v) Derogatory, disrespectful or malicious gestures or actions that serve to humiliate or demean a person or create an atmosphere of fear of intimidation;
- vi) Comments ridiculing an individual because of characteristics, dress, etc. that are related to a ground of discrimination;
- vii) Discriminatory behaviour that causes substantial distress and is based on a protected ground, or the perception that a protected ground applies.

e) Poisoned Work Environment

For the Employer

Paul Harding

A poisoned work environment results from comment(s), conduct, or practices that create a negative psychological and emotional environment at work.

The comments, conduct or practices need not be directed at a specific individual, and may be from any individual, regardless of position or status. A single comment or action, if sufficiently serious, may create a poisoned work environment.

7.04 Responsibilities

a) Employer Responsibilities:

In accordance with Section 115(1)(a) & Section 115(2)(e) of the Workers Compensation Act the Employer has a duty to ensure the health and safety of employees, and as a result, must take all reasonable steps to prevent where possible, or otherwise minimize, workplace bullying and harassment. Accordingly, the Employer must:

- i) Regularly review and update its policies and procedures related to bullying and harassment;
- ii) Regularly educate all employees on the abovementioned policies;
- iii) Promptly investigate reports of workplace bullying and harassment including complaints related to external parties that arise while employees are conducting work on behalf of the Employer;
- iv) Discipline or take other appropriate action against any person who engages in bullying or harassment in violation of this Article;
- v) Discipline or take other appropriate action against any person who under this Article makes a claim of bullying or harassment, which is determined to be frivolous, vexatious or vindictive in nature;
- vi) Discipline or take other appropriate action against any person who retaliates against anyone involved in a bullying or harassment complaint.

Should a client or visitor act in a manner that is in violation of this Article, the Employer ~~will~~ may discontinue service to said client or visitor and/or ban them from the Employer's property depending on the circumstances of the situation and any previous incidents of abusive behaviour by the client or visitor. See also Article 7.06(c).

b) Employee Responsibilities:

In accordance with Section 116(1)(a) of the Workers Compensation Act, employees have a duty to take reasonable care to protect the health and safety of themselves and other persons. As a result, employees must take all reasonable steps to prevent where possible, or otherwise minimize, workplace bullying and harassment by:

- i) Promptly reporting if bullying and harassment is observed or experienced where work is being conducted on behalf of the Employer, including incidents involving external parties;
- ii) Not engaging in bullying and harassment while conducting work on behalf of the Employer and while attending events on behalf of the Employer or sponsored by the Employer.

No employee shall be subject to reprisal, threat of reprisal, or discipline as a result of filing a bona fide complaint of harassment or discrimination. If, as a result of an investigation, a complaint is found to be vexatious, it will be considered a form of harassment and will be dealt with in accordance with this Article.

7.05 Complaint Process

a) Informal Resolution

An employee who believes they are the recipient of inappropriate or unacceptable behaviour is encouraged to deal directly with the person(s) whose behaviour is at issue in an effort to come to a resolution. The employee should:

- i) Tell the alleged harasser(s) to stop, if possible;
- ii) Document the event(s), complete with the time, date, location, names of witnesses and details of the event(s) if possible.

A Complainant may also try to informally resolve their complaint with the assistance of their supervisor, job steward, or union representative. If the Complainant is satisfied with the outcome reached at this point, the complaint will be considered resolved. Should the Parties believe that the assistance of a third-party mediator would be beneficial at this stage, and both the Complainant and the Respondent are willing to participate in mediation, a third-party mediator may be retained by mutual agreement of the Parties.

If informal resolution is either unsuccessful, or is considered inappropriate, the Complainant may escalate their complaint through the formal resolution process.

b) Formal Complaint Resolution Process

An employee who believes they have a complaint of harassment and feels unable to resolve the matter directly, may make a formal complaint to their immediate supervisor, or designate to receive such complaints.

The complaint must contain the specific instance(s) and date(s) that the alleged harassment occurred (to the best of one's ability), the names of any witnesses, and an explanation of how the action constitutes a violation of Article 7, and the remedy sought.

The Employer will arrange for investigation of the complaint promptly and thoroughly, which will be actioned within seven (7) working days of receiving a complaint. The Respondent is entitled to be given notice of the substance of the allegation and to fully respond to the allegations.

The Employer will use a third-party investigator to conduct investigations. Investigations must be fair, impartial, focused, reasonable, and in good faith. The investigator will issue a report and/or a finding of fact within thirty (30) working days, a copy of which will be provided to the Union.

Pending determination of the complaint the Employer may, after full consultation with the Union, take interim measures to separate the employees involved where deemed necessary by the Employer.

The Employer will consider the recommendations as outlined in the investigator's report and take action within ten (10) working days of receiving the investigator's report.

The Employer will advise the Respondent and the Complainant in writing of the substance of the investigator's report and the recommendations and/or resolution of the complaint.

Where the complaint is found to be warranted the Employer will notify the Respondent in writing within seven (7) working days and will take appropriate disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Where the complaint is determined by the third-party investigator to be of a frivolous; vindictive or vexatious nature, the Employer may take appropriate disciplinary action against the Complainant up to and including termination.

If the Complainant and Respondent require further support to resolve the issue between them, the Union will be advised of the outstanding issue. The Employer and the Union will jointly agree upon who will be assigned to facilitate informal mediation between the parties. Any party may withdraw from these discussions at any time.

c) Disagreements with Respect to the Resolution Process

Should an employee or the Union disagree with the process by which a bullying or harassment allegation was handled, they may file a grievance in accordance with Article 10.

7.06 Protection from Client Abuse

- a) The Employer recognizes that its employees may be subject to verbal, psychological and/or physical abuse by its clients and will take proactive action to ensure that its employees are safeguarded from such abuse.
- b) When the Employer is aware that a client has a history of abusive behaviour, the Employer shall make such information available to employees who may interact with said client. When such information is made available, Technicians reserve the right to decline to see the client. There shall be no reprisal such as discipline issued to Technicians who exercise this right.

UP 9/E6	9	ARTICLE 9 - SENIORITY

ARTICLE 9 - SENIORITY

9.01 Definition of Seniority

- a) Seniority shall be defined as the length of an employee's continuous service with the Employer within the bargaining unit, subject to the provisions of this Article.
- b) Employees will accumulate seniority on the basis of their continuous service in the bargaining unit from their last day of hire, except as otherwise provided herein.
- c) Seniority will operate on a bargaining unit-wide basis.
- ~~d) Notwithstanding anything however, each employee in the bargaining unit, on the date of certification, January 31, 2024, shall be given credit for continuous service for the entire time period between their last date of hire by the Employer and the effective date of certification, and such continuous service shall apply for all purposes under this Agreement.~~

9.02 Calculation of Seniority - General

- a) Calculation of Seniority
  - i. Seniority shall be calculated as the elapsed time from the date an employee is first employed by the Employer within the bargaining unit, unless the employee's seniority is broken (in accordance with this Agreement), in which event such calculation shall be from the date the employee returns to work following the last break in their seniority
  - ii. Each employee in the bargaining unit, on the effective date of this Agreement, shall be given credit for continuous service for the entire time period between their date of hire by the Employer, including service prior to the date of certification, and the effective date of this Agreement, and such continuous service shall apply for all purposes under this Agreement.
  - iii. Part-time regular employees shall be credited with seniority on a pro-rata basis in proportion to the hours of work for a full-time employee, to a maximum of a full-time regular employee, as calculated on a bi-weekly basis. Seniority accrual will be based on the employee's scheduled non-overtime hours (i.e. base hours plus voluntary additional hours which are worked during a regular workday/week). In situations of part-time employee absence, seniority accrual will be in accordance with base hours only.

b) Determining Seniority for Employees Hired on Same Day

When two (2) or more employees commence work with the Employer on the same day, their seniority order shall be based on their date of offer of employment.

c) Seniority Accrual When Absent from Work

Except as expressly provided otherwise by this Agreement, seniority shall continue to accrue for any employee who is on approved time off from work, subject to the provisions of this Article.

d) Payment of Union Dues to Preserve Seniority Accrual When Absent from Work

If an employee continues to accrue seniority under this Agreement during any absence from work, such employee must continue paying union dues, fees, assessments and/or levies directly to the Union pursuant to this Agreement during such absence, if these payments are not otherwise made by deduction at source in accordance with the applicable provisions of Article 6.

9.03 Service Outside the Bargaining Unit

- a) Service with the Employer outside the bargaining unit shall not count for seniority purposes under this Article, save and except as expressly provided otherwise by this Agreement.
- b) An employee who accepts a position with the Employer outside of the bargaining unit and subsequently returns to the bargaining unit without an interruption of employment with the Employer, will be credited with such seniority as had previously been attained in the bargaining unit based on their original date of hire.

9.04 Application of Seniority

- a) The Parties recognize job security shall increase in proportion to length of seniority as herein defined.
- b) The senior employee within the department, in terms of superior length of seniority, shall be entitled to preference with respect to days and shifts to be worked, and to days to be taken off work including, but not limited to, vacation, banked overtime taken as time off work, and leaves of absence under this Agreement, subject to the Employer's ability to meet operational requirements.

Union Proposals (U Item)

Table with 4 columns: Union Proposal Number, Affected Article/MOU, Date, Time. Row 1: UP 10/E9, 10, ARTICLE 10 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE AND ARBITRATION

ARTICLE 10 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE AND ARBITRATION

10.01 Grievance Processing

The Parties to this Agreement are agreed it is of the utmost importance to address complaints and grievances as quickly as possible in accordance with the procedures as set out in this Article. For the purpose of this Article the word "employee" when used, will be interpreted to refer to any employee of the Employer who is a member of the bargaining unit. The grievor shall be allowed the necessary time off, with pay, to attend grievance meetings with the Employer.

10.02 Grievance Defined

In this Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, "grievance" means any dispute or difference between the Parties to this Agreement concerning the discipline or dismissal of any employee or any dispute or difference between the Parties to the Agreement regarding the interpretation, application, operation, or any alleged violation thereof, including any questions as to whether any matter is arbitrable. All grievances or disputes arising during the life of the Agreement shall be settled without stoppage of work and without strike or lockout.

10.03 Policy Grievances

Whether When either party to this Agreement disputes the general application, interpretation, operation, or alleged violation of any provision of this Agreement, either Party may initiate a policy grievance, in writing, within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of becoming aware of the action or the circumstances giving rise to the policy grievance. It is understood that in the event an employee, for any reason, does not sign a complaint in accordance with Article 10.06, this will in no way restrict or limit the Union from raising a policy grievance, provided the Union adheres to the time limit in writing in accordance with this clause.

- a) The grieving Party, i.e. either the union representative or the management representative of the Employer, or their nominee(s), shall initiate same by letter. Within ten (10) working days of receipt of such written notice, the principals or their nominees shall meet and attempt to resolve the grievance.

E&OE Signed off this 27th day of September 20 24

- b) If the grievance is not resolved, the grievance may be submitted to arbitration as set out in Article 10.08 or 10.09.

Notwithstanding the above, an employee shall have the right to appeal, in accordance with the grievance and arbitration procedures contained in this Article, any disciplinary action taken by the Employer.

10.04 Discipline Grievances

The Employer shall only dismiss or discipline an employee for just and reasonable cause. The burden of proof of just and reasonable cause shall rest with the Employer.

Grievances concerning dismissal or suspension of an employee may be submitted directly to Step III, Article 10.07, at the option of the grieving Party, within twenty (20) working days of the termination or suspension. Timelines specified in the grievance procedure steps below may be extended by mutual agreement of the Union and the Employer. Also, the Parties may move a grievance from Step I to Step III upon mutual agreement.

10.05 STEP I – Informal Complaint

Employees are encouraged to discuss any complaint, dispute or misunderstanding relating to this Agreement with their Manager as soon as possible, and for the purpose of this clause not later than ~~twenty (20)~~ ~~ten (10)~~ fifteen (15) working days from the date of the action which led to the complaint, dispute or misunderstanding. The job steward and/or union representative may attend at the option of the employee.

10.06 STEP II

Should a complaint be unresolved, the complaint becomes a grievance. The grievance will be submitted by the Union office to the Director in writing, with a copy to the Operations Manager not later than ~~twenty (20)~~ ~~ten (10)~~ fifteen (15) working days from the date the complaint was first raised at Step I.

The Operations Manager ~~or designate~~ and the Director, Neurofeedback will meet with and discuss the grievance as required with the job steward, the grievor, and/or union representative and render a decision in writing to the Union office with a copy to the job steward ~~and the Executive Director or an appointed nominee~~ within ten (10) working days of the date of referral to Step II.

10.07 STEP III

A grievance not settled at Step II may be referred in writing by the Union to the Executive Director, with a copy to the Operations Manager, within ~~twenty (20)~~ ~~ten (10)~~ fifteen (15) working days of the Employer's decision at Stage II.

The grievor(s), and job stewards(s), and the Union Representative shall attend this stage of the grievance procedure.

Within ~~twenty (20)~~ ~~ten (10)~~ fifteen (15) working days of the receipt of the Union's referral to Step III, the Operations Manager will submit their decision to the Union in writing.

Within twenty (20) working days of receipt of the written reply at Step III, the Union may refer the grievance to arbitration as set out in Article 10.08 or 10.09.

10.08 Arbitration Procedure

- a) Any grievance which has been processed through the relevant steps of the grievance procedure without being settled may be submitted to a single arbitrator.

The Parties to the dispute will thereupon mutually decide on the appointment of an arbitrator within ten (10) days of such notice.

- b) The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding on both Parties to this Agreement.
- c) The arbitrator shall not be vested with the power to change, modify, or alter any part of this Agreement except under the provisions of Section 89 of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.
- d) Each Party shall pay one half (1/2) of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator, including any disbursements incurred by the arbitration proceedings.

10.09 Expedited Arbitration

For the purpose of accelerating the resolution of applicable grievances, the Parties may mutually agree to refer to expedited arbitration, as set out in the provisions of Section 104 of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia any matter properly submitted, as a grievance. ~~in accordance with the provisions of the grievance procedure contained in this Agreement.~~

- a) An arbitrator shall be selected to hear the matter in dispute in accordance with the provisions of this Article.
- b) The facts of the matter in dispute shall be presented during expedited arbitration by a designated representative of the Union and a designated representative of the Employer, who shall not be lawyers.
- c) The decision of the arbitrator is without prejudice or precedence and shall not be referred to by either Party in any other, or subsequent proceedings.
- d) All other provisions of this Article with respect to arbitration and the arbitration process shall apply to expedited arbitration.

10.10 Disclosure of Information

The Parties agree to provide each other, in a timely manner, with all relevant facts and documents applicable to any existing grievance.

ARTICLE 14 - FILLING JOB VACANCIES

14.01 Definition of Job Vacancy

A job vacancy shall exist where there is work available as defined in this Agreement, and such work is within the scope of this Agreement. The filling, or not, of any such job vacancy shall be subject to the discretion of the Employer unless expressly provided otherwise by this Agreement.

14.02 Posting Job Vacancies

a) Vacancies

Except as expressly provided otherwise by this Agreement, all job vacancies for positions as defined in this Agreement shall be posted by the Employer internally and externally, for a minimum five(5) consecutive calendar days, however bargaining unit members shall be given priority.

b) Job Posting to Contain Pertinent Details

All job postings shall state all pertinent details of the job including, but not limited to:

- i) Job title;
ii) Salary rate;
iii) Whether the job is temporary or permanent;
iv) Hours of work;
v) Duties;
vi) Qualifications;
vii) Closing date of the job posting;
viii) Date the job vacancy is to be filled;
ix) The position is a Unionized position;

A copy of all job postings shall be sent, at the time of posting, by the Employer to the Union.

d) Compliance with Job Posting Procedure

The Employer shall not, in any form or manner, hire or use any person from outside the bargaining unit with respect to any job vacancy within the bargaining unit which is subject to job posting under this Article. However, until the job vacancy is filled, it is acceptable to have a manager perform aspects of the vacant job in order to meet operational requirements. The Employer will not use such an action to delay or otherwise not fill the vacant position.

14.03 Eligibility for Posted Job Vacancies for Laid Off Employees

All employees who are laid off and who are eligible for recall pursuant to this Agreement shall be eligible to apply and be considered for any posted job vacancy during their period of recall. The Employer shall provide such laid-off employees with a copy of all job postings sent by email to their last known personal email address. It will be the responsibility of laid-off employees to keep their email address current with the Employer if they continue to be interested in a recall.

14.04 Filling Posted Job Vacancies

a) Employer Is Responsible for Job Selection

The selection of employees under this Article rests with the Employer, subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

b) Interviews

The Employer shall conduct interviews with shortlisted applicants for posted job vacancy who meet the job selection criteria referred to in this Article. Paid time off work for such purposes shall be granted by the Employer. Article 14.04(c) shall not apply where the job vacancy is filled by an employee's return, in accordance with Clause 14.04(d)(ii), to a previously held position.

c) Rights of Unsuccessful Applicants within the Bargaining Unit

On request, the Employer shall give an unsuccessful applicant full reason, in writing, explaining why the employee's application was not successful and the employee shall have the right to grieve the matter in accordance with the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

d) Rights of Successful Applicants Moving into the New Position

Where any employee has been selected to fill a posted job vacancy under this Article, the Employer shall undertake to move the employee into the new position as soon thereafter as possible. If the employee is not moved after two (2) weeks from the

e) Limited Right to Return to Former Position

Only if the former position is vacant, and without prejudice to the employee, an employee who has been selected to fill a posted job vacancy under this Article shall have the right, subject to their sole discretion, to return to the job they held immediately prior to such change of position; provided this right is exercised by the employee within fifteen (15) consecutive calendar days from the date upon which the employee actually starts work in the new position.

If an employee elects to return to their former job pursuant to this Article, such employee shall be kept whole in all respects under this Agreement as if they had remained working in the former position and had not accepted the new position.

f) Impact of Job Selection Grievance

An employee who has been selected to fill a posted job vacancy under this Article, whose selection gives rise to a grievance, may assume the position at issue; however, shall be advised in a timely manner by the Employer about the existence and nature of the grievance.

If, as a result of the grievance, such employee is removed from the position at issue, this person shall be returned to their former job and work location and shall be kept whole in all respects under this Agreement, as if they had not been awarded the job posting in question, unless the Employer and the Union mutually agree in writing to alternative arrangements.

14.05 Job Selection Criteria

- a) The Employer shall ensure that in the exercise of its job selection rights under this Article, no discrimination or favoritism affects any candidate.
- b) Job selections and promotions shall be on the basis of knowledge, skills and ability to perform the vacant job (at the time of posting). Where the candidates are relatively equal, seniority will be the determining factor.
- c) If there are no applicants within the unit who meet the qualifications, then the Employer may fill the job vacancy by hiring outside the bargaining unit. ~~Such outside hire must meet the qualifications for the job.~~

a) Daily and Weekly Hours

Standard hours of a work week for full-time employees shall be forty hours (40) per work week, achieved by working eight (8) hours per day, which includes paid break(s) as described in Article 22.02 below.

b) Shifts and Shift Schedule Notice

As stated in Article 9.04, preference with respect to shifts and days worked will be in accordance with seniority. In addition, when the demand for neurofeedback increases and extra hours or shifts are required, these shall be offered to employees in a block in seniority order subject to the Employer’s operational requirements. Such ongoing increased shifts shall not result in an employee’s hours exceeding the standard daily and weekly hours specified in Article 22.01(a) above. Where the assignment of a shift or block of hours would exceed the standard full-time hours, the block will be offered to the most senior employees for whom the block does not exceed the standard full-time daily or weekly hours.

All work schedules will be posted at least fourteen (14) calendar days before their effective date.

When the Employer changes an employee’s workday or work week, the employee shall be notified and the change posted fourteen (14) calendar days before the effective date.

When an employee wishes to change their workday or work week, the approval of the Employer must be obtained and posted fourteen (14) calendar days before the effective date.

c) Minimum Call-Out Pay

The Employer shall pay employees reporting for work as required by the Employer their regular wage for the entire period spent at the place of work, with a minimum in any one (1) day of:

- i) where employees commence work, four (4) hours pay unless the work is suspended because of inclement weather or other reasons completely beyond the control of the Employer, in which case Article 22.04 applies;
- ii) where an employee is requested to attend a meeting on a day on which they are not scheduled to work, the employee will be paid for the time actually spent at the meeting but will be paid a minimum of two (2) hours for attending the meeting.

22.02 Break Periods

When Neurofeedback Technicians work less than six (6) hours, they shall be entitled to take a paid break of thirty (30) minutes. However, when they are scheduled for shifts of six (6) hours or more, they shall be entitled to an additional paid break of thirty (30) minutes not taken in conjunction with the first break. Neither break shall be scheduled during the first or last half hour of the shift.

Office administration employees who work shifts of four (4) hours or less shall not be entitled to paid breaks. Those who work shifts of between four (4) hours and six (6) hours shall receive a paid break of thirty (30) minutes, and those whose shifts are greater than six (6) hours are entitled to paid breaks totaling forty-five (45) minutes.

Additional break time may be granted by the Employer upon request; however, it will be unpaid.

In the case where lunch relief is not available at the front desk, and an employee is unable to leave for lunch, the lunch period shall be paid at the applicable rate.

22.03 Days of Rest

Employees will be entitled to two (2) consecutive days of rest each calendar week.

26.09 Compassionate Care Leave

This Article replicates the Compassionate Care Leave provisions of the Employment Standards Act and will be amended in accordance with the legislated changes to the Act.

In this section, "family member" means:

- a) a member of an employee's immediate family, and
- b) any other individual who ~~is a member of a prescribed class~~ lives with the employee or is publicly recognized as a member of the employee's family.

An employee who requests leave under this section is entitled to up to twenty-seven (27) weeks of unpaid leave to provide care or support to a family member if a medical practitioner issues a certificate stating that the family member has a serious medical condition with a significant risk of death within twenty-six (26) weeks, or such other period as may be prescribed, after the date the certificate is issued, or, if the leave began before the date the certificate is issued, the date the leave began.

The employee must give the Employer a copy of the certificate as soon as practicable.

- a) An employee may begin a leave under this section no earlier than the first day of the week in which the period ~~under subsection (2)~~ described in Art. 26.09 above begins.
- b) A leave under this section ends on the last day of the week in which the earlier of the following occurs:
  - i) the family member dies;
  - ii) the expiration of twenty-six (26) weeks or other prescribed period from the date the leave began.
- c) A leave taken under this section must be taken in units of one or more weeks.
- d) If an employee takes a leave under this section and the family member to whom subsection (2) applies does not die within the period referred to in that subsection, the employee may take a further leave after obtaining a new certificate in accordance with ~~subsection (2), and subsection (3) to (6)~~ apply the above procedure, which also applies to the further leave.

26.10 Family Responsibility Leave

An employee is entitled to up to five (5) days of ~~paid~~ unpaid leave during each employment year to meet responsibilities related to:

26.11 Critical Illness or Injury Leave

An employee will be entitled to unpaid leave to care for a family member whose health has significantly changed due to critical illness or injury. A family member includes immediate family, as well as ~~other relatives and individuals considered to be like family regardless of blood, adoption, marriage, or common-law partnership~~ any other person who lives with the employee or is publicly recognized as a member of the employee's family.

An employee who requests leave under this Article is entitled to the following:

- up to sixteen (16) weeks to provide care or support to a family member who is nineteen (19) years of age or older; or,
- up to thirty-six (36) weeks to provide care or support to a family member who is under nineteen (19) years of age at the start of leave.

The leave must be taken in units of one or more weeks and the employees is entitled to take different periods of leave within fifty-two (52) weeks of the first day leave is taken. If the life of the family member remains at risk fifty-two (52) weeks after the first leave began, the employee may take another leave after obtaining a new medical certificate.

The Employer reserves the right to request a certificate from a medical practitioner or nurse practitioner, and the cost will be home borne by the Employer.

This certificate must set out the following:

- length of the leave required;
- that the leave is needed to attend to the family member whose state of health has changed to the extent the family member's life is at risk from the illness or injury; and,
- that the family member's needs can be met by someone who is not a health professional.

26.12 Gender-Based Violence and the Workplace

The Employer ~~agrees to~~ recognizes that an employee or an employee's child or dependent sometimes face situations of violence or abuse in their personal life that are directly related to their gender, that may affect their attendance or performance at work. For that reason, the Employer and the Union agree that an employee who is in an abusive or violent situation will not be subject to discipline if the absence or performance can be linked to the abusive or violent situation.

- a) The Employer agrees to grant an employee up to ~~twelve (12)~~ five (5) days of paid leave and up to five (5) days of unpaid leave per calendar year to deal with issues related to gender-based violence. ~~Notwithstanding the above, the Employer also agrees that requests for additional unpaid leaves of absence submitted by~~

- b) Further to the above, the Employer agrees that requests for sick leave, vacation, lieu time and any other paid leaves of absence submitted by employees in order for them to deal with issues related to gender-based violence shall not be unreasonably denied.
- c) In addition to the time referred to above, the employee will be entitled up to another fifteen (15) weeks of unpaid leave to be taken at a minimum of one ~~day or more~~ week at a time if the violence aligns with the parameters of section 52.5 of the Employment Standards Act. Such leave will not be unreasonably denied.
- e) It is further agreed that privacy and confidentiality should be maintained, and the Union and/or Employer should not disclose more personal information than is reasonably necessary ~~information~~ and only with those who need to know. All personal information concerning gender-based violence should be kept confidential and no information should be kept ~~in~~ the employee's file without their express written permission.

26.13 Trainee Union Representatives

The Employer will grant leave of absence to an employee requested by the Union to serve as a Trainee Union Representative, ~~in accordance with the foregoing paragraph~~, subject to the following conditions:

- a) the time of the leave will be subject to departmental operating considerations;
- b) the period of absence will not exceed six (6) continuous months, unless otherwise agreed by the Employer.
- c) the employees wages and benefits will be reimbursed by the Union.

26.14 Other Leaves of Absence

General Leave Without Pay

- i) Subject to the approval of the Employer, a leave of absence without pay may be granted to an employee where there are ~~unusually~~ compelling circumstances. Included with the written request for leave of absence the employee must state the anticipated date of their return to work.
- ii) In the event of a leave of absence exceeding one (1) month, the employee absent from work shall reimburse the Employer for the full costs of benefits premiums. The method of repayment to the Employer shall be arranged prior to commencing the leave of absence.

In such cases, and where conditions warrant it, special leave with pay may be granted to an employee. Special leave shall not be unreasonably denied.~~

First Responder Leave

Employees who are volunteer emergency and rescue workers will receive five (5) days paid unpaid leave to provide emergency services when dispatched.

26.15 Duty to Accommodate

The Parties agree that the duty to accommodate can arise at any point in the employment relationship, and it is intended to provide and ensure equitable access to employment opportunities and fair treatment in the workplace. Accommodation refers to modifying employment requirements, rules or policies that could be considered discriminatory because they have a negative effect on an individual or protected group under the Human Rights Code (the "Code").

The Parties recognize that the duty to accommodate is a tripartite process that involves the Employer, the Union and the employee, who will work together to attain the objective set out in the Code, and as such, the Parties understand the following:

- a) The Parties recognize, that despite the advantages of a collaborative approach to accommodation issues, clear and timely decisions are required in order to:
  - avoid unnecessary delay and uncertainty; and,
  - allow the Parties to ~~decide whether to~~ pursue dispute resolution steps.
- b) An employee seeking an accommodation will submit their request in writing, outlining:
  - the nature of the accommodation request and on which prohibited ground the employee is seeking to be accommodated.
  - ~~be prepared to provide~~ sufficient information or documentation that is reasonably necessary to substantiate the accommodation request.
- c) The Employer, upon receipt of the request, will provide it to the union representative and the Parties will arrange to consult and engage in the duty to accommodate process. This will include the Employer, the Union and the employee.

27.04 Section 54 Workplace Changes

- a) The Employer will provide the Union with information as far in advance as possible of any proposed significant technological change. Any disputes arising in relation to technological change shall be discussed between representatives of the two Parties.
- b) If the Employer plans to introduce a change that will affect the terms, conditions or security of a significant number of employees in the bargaining unit, the Parties agree that they will comply with and follow the procedures specified in Section 54 (1) of the Labour Relations Code of BC with respect to the provision of notice and the development of an adjustment plan.
- c) If a dispute arises regarding the change or the adjustment plan that cannot be settled in direct negotiations, either party may refer the matter directly to an arbitrator under Clause 10.08 of this Agreement, bypassing all other steps in the grievance procedure.
- d) The arbitrator shall decide whether the Employer has introduced, or intends to introduce, a change that does or does not comply with the provisions of Section 54 (1) of the Labour Relations Code.
- e) The arbitrator shall inform the Chairperson of the Labour Relations Board of their findings and shall issue any orders necessary to resolve the dispute in accordance with the provisions of Sections 54 (1) and 54 (2) of the Code and to resolve any other related matters as the arbitrator may deem appropriate.

27.02 Security of Bargaining Unit Work

~~No work which is normally, properly or customarily performed by members of the bargaining unit shall be contracted out, contracted in, sub-contracted or performed by anyone other than Union members in the bargaining unit.~~

The Parties recognize and acknowledge that work that is normally and customarily performed by members of the bargaining unit shall not be contracted out or performed by non-bargaining unit employees other than the following exceptions:

- a) In the event of an unplanned or unforeseen short-term absence by a bargaining unit employee that cannot be backfilled by another bargaining unit employee, a manager or non-bargaining unit employee may backfill the absent employee on a temporary basis in order to meet scheduled client obligations.
- b) With respect to the administration of neurofeedback to clients, nothing in this Agreement prevents this client service from being performed by the Director of Neurofeedback, the Managing Director or a qualified counsellor where circumstances warrant.

ARTICLE 29 - GENERAL PROVISIONS

29.01 Impact of Legislation

- a) If any article or provision or part thereof of this Agreement shall be rendered null and void, or materially altered, or otherwise be declared invalid, inoperative, or unenforceable, by any competent authority or applicable legislation arising from the legislative or judicial branch of the federal, or provincial, or territorial governments, the following shall apply:
i) the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect for the life of the Agreement;
ii) the Employer and the Union shall, as soon as possible, negotiate mutually agreeable provisions to be substituted for the provisions rendered nugatory null and void, to whatever degree;
iii) if mutual agreement cannot be reached, the matter may, at the option of either Party, be referred directly to arbitration in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement. For this purpose, it is agreed that the matter must be so referred within sixty (60) calendar days following the date of unsatisfactory conclusion of the relevant negotiations.
b) Where legislation provides better terms and conditions of employment for any employee(s) than is provided for in this Agreement, such legislation shall apply and prevail.

29.02 Superior Terms and Conditions to Continue

Employees receiving wages, benefits, entitlements, or other terms and/or conditions of employment superior to those provided in this Agreement, shall remain at the superior benefit level which was in effect on the effective date of this Agreement, until such time as such superior wages, benefits, entitlements, or other terms and/or conditions of employment are surpassed by the provisions of succeeding Agreements.

29.03 Continuation of Existing Practices

~~Existing working conditions and practices, whether written or oral, which are not specifically referred to in this Agreement and which are not in conflict with any of its provisions and which have been established by custom and/or usage shall continue in full force and effect and shall not be altered during the life of this Agreement, except by mutual written agreement between the Employer and the Union.~~

29.04 Indemnity

- a) The employer will:
  - i) indemnify and save harmless employees from any liability action arising from the performance of their duties for the Employer; and
  - ii) assume all costs, legal fees, and other expenses arising from any such action.
- b) Criminal Actions – Where an employee is charged with an offence resulting directly from the performance of their duties, the employee will be reimbursed for all legal fees.
- c) The Employer will have the sole and exclusive right to settle any claim, action, or judgment or bring or defend any litigation in respect of them.

29.05 Preparation and Distribution of the Agreement

- a) The Union and the Employer desire every employee to be familiar with the provisions of this Agreement, and their rights under it. For this reason, sufficient copies of the Agreement will be printed for distribution to employees.
- b) The cost of printing the Agreement shall jointly be borne by the Parties.
- c) The Employer agrees to explain fully the terms of this Agreement as to the rights, entitlements and responsibilities of all employees covered by this Agreement to all of its management and supervisory personnel who have any responsibility for any employees in the bargaining unit. The Employer further agrees that a copy of this Agreement shall be given to all such persons.

29.06 Workload

Any employee or group of employees concerned about their workload shall first discuss the matter with the Office Operations Manager or Director of Neurofeedback. The Office Operations Manager, Director of Neurofeedback, or designate shall investigate the matter and take such decisions as they feel are appropriate to resolve the matter.

The employee(s) involved shall have the right to have a job steward or union representative present during any discussions under this section and shall be advised of that right.

29.07 Union Label

The Union Label shall be made available to the Employer. The privilege of using the Union Label shall be extended to the Employer as long as this Agreement remains in full force and effect and the Employer is fulfilling all of its terms and conditions. The Union Label shall be the official Union Label as designated by the Union and The Union Label shall remain the sole property of the Union.

29.08 Surveillance Cameras

- a) The Parties recognize and acknowledge that the Employer currently operates cameras in the workplace to protect the Employer and employees from theft and to protect employees from the safety risks associated with running a business where clients attend in person.
- b) There shall be no surveillance cameras in employee lunchrooms, rest areas or personal hygiene facilities.
- c) The surveillance cameras shall not record any audio.
- d) The Employer will establish adequate policies and procedures to ensure the following:
  - i) That access to any surveillance footage shall be restricted to a minimal number of authorized individuals (the "Authorized Individuals") and that the Employer identify the Authorized Individuals to the Union;
  - ii) That the Authorized Individuals shall only review surveillance footage to investigate a security or safety incident, such as a criminal activity, or where a review of surveillance footage is authorized by the Personal Information Protection Act or by other law;
  - iii) That current and new employees shall be informed about the purpose of the surveillance cameras and their locations;
  - iv) That any surveillance footage be securely stored and compliant with the relevant privacy legislation.
- e) Where video evidence is being relied upon by the Employer for employee discipline, employees will be afforded an opportunity to review the video evidence prior to answering any questions on the subject of the video.
- f) The Union will be provided with a copy of such video evidence.
