EMPLOYEES UNION, LOCAL 378)
(hereinafter referred to as the "Union")

PARTY OF THE SECOND PART

ARTICLE 2 - BARGAINING UNIT AND RECOGNITION

2.01

The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole bargaining authority for all employees in its offices within the jurisdiction of MoveUP, and within the classifications of office and clerical workers listed in Appendix "B" or within such new classifications as may from time to time be established by the Employer. It is expressly agreed that this Agreement shall not apply to any elected or appointed officer, business agent or representative of the Employer.

ARTICLE 3 - UNION SECURITY

3.01

The Employer agrees that all employees shall maintain Union membership in MoveUP as a condition of employment.

3.02

When office workers are required, Union members in possession of a paid-up Union book or card will be hired. The Employer agrees to advise the Union office when requiring the Union to supply competent office workers. Should office workers who are Union members not be available, or not be qualified according to agreed-upon job descriptions, the Employer may obtain office workers elsewhere, it being understood that the employee will join the Union within fifteen (15) days and remain a member of the Union in good standing, as a condition of continuing employment.

Upon written notice from the Union that an employee fails to maintain membership in the Union by refusing to pay dues or assessments, the Employer agrees to terminate employment of said employee after seven (7) days from the date of notice.

The Employer agrees to deduct the amount authorized as Union dues, initiation and/or assessments once every two (2) weeks and to transmit the monies so collected to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union within ten (10) business days following the end of pay period along with a description of what time period the deductions are for, together with a list of employees from whom such deductions were made.

ARTICLE 4 - THE RIGHTS OF THE EMPLOYER

ARTICLE 5 – DEFINITION OF EMPLOYEE STATUS

5.01

All employees hired to fill a regular position under Article 5.02 or Article 5.03 will be considered probationary for the first ninety (90) days of employment. After successfully completing the probationary period of ninety (90) days, or an extended probationary period, an employee will become regular. The probationary period may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties.

Any requests for vacation during the probationary period will be considered on a case-by-case basis, taking into consideration acceptable performance to date. Probationary periods will be extended by the time taken to ensure suitability for role.

5.02 Regular

A regular employee is any employee on a full-time permanent basis whose duties fall within the bargaining unit as defined in Article 2 of this Agreement and who has completed the probationary period.

5.03 Regular Part-Time

- (ii) Sick leave entitlement shall be on a pro-rata basis consistent with the time employed.

A temporary employee reaching regular status will have rights under this Agreement which are based on length of service for seniority dated from the start of employment.

In their first calendar year of service, the excepted temporary employees with no prior experience will be paid at the six (6) month rate.

Commencing with the second calendar year of service in a comparable job, the excepted temporary employees will be paid at the twelve (12) month rate.

Note: Employees in the exception category above do not attain regular status if they exceed six (6) months service, but may be paid at the twelve (12) month rate by mutual agreement between Employer and Union.

ARTICLE 7 - HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

7.01

A regular work day shall consist of eight (8) hours, including a one-hour unpaid lunch period.

7.02

A regular work week shall consist of thirty-five (35) hours worked between 0800 hours Monday, and 1700 hours Friday.

NOTE: It is understood that changes to an employee's existing start and finish time may be made at any time:

- (a) by mutual agreement between the Employer and the employee; or
- (b) by the Employer giving the employee two (2) weeks notice of the change.
- (c) In addition to the above, an employee's existing start and stop time may be changed to between 0700 hours and 1730 hours by mutual agreement between the Employer and the employee.

7.03

A one (1) hour, or, if mutually agreeable to employee and employer, taking into consideration business requirements, a 30 minute lunch period will be provided and taken whenever possible within the two (2) hours in the middle of the regular working day, precise time to be arranged between the Employer and the employee. In order to facilitate the banking of time to provide for earned days off pursuant to Article 7.06, the lunch period may be reduced to one-half (1/2) hour by mutual agreement between the employee and the employee's immediate supervisor.

7.04

Two (2) relief periods per day of fifteen (15) minutes each, one (1) in the morning and one (1) in the afternoon, shall be taken without loss of pay.

7.05

Hours of work may be varied subject to mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union. The daily and weekly hours set out in Articles 7.01 and 7.02 of this Agreement will be used as the standard, failing mutual agreement.

7.06 Earned Days Off

The Employer and the Union agree that for the duration of this collective agreement all regular full-time employees who have completed the probationary period will work in accordance with an earned days off schedule throughout the year upon mutual agreement:

Employees hired between July 1 – December 1 are eligible to earn 2.5 days of EDO time only for that year.

- (a) Each employee and their immediate supervisor shall establish a mutually agreeable schedule for the employee to work an additional one-half (.5) hour per day which time shall be banked to provide for earned days of leave as set out under sub-paragraph (b) below. During the period the employee is working the additional one-half (.5) hour of work per day the regular work day shall consist of seven and one-half (7½) hours between the hours of 0800 and 1700 for which the employee will be paid for seven (7) hours. The maximum time that may be banked to provide for earned days of leave as set out under sub-paragraph (b) below is thirty-five (35) hours (five (5) days).
- (b) An earned days off schedule will be in effect throughout the year upon mutual agreement.
- (c) The employee's start and finish times shall be assigned by the Employer and will be effective the date of implementation of this provision. In addition, the Employer shall establish an earned days off schedule throughout the year upon mutual agreement. In assigning days off, the Employer will consider employee preferences by seniority.
- (d) In response to reasonable requests of the Employer, employees will work an earned day off to cover for a regularly scheduled employee who is ill, on vacation, or otherwise unavailable, and will be granted a substitute day off. This day off shall be considered to be the employee's scheduled day off for the purposes of clause 7.08.
- (e) The number of days to which an employee is entitled is dependent on the amount of time which the employee has banked pursuant to sub-paragraph (a) above. An annual adjustment for each employee will be made to reflect whether they have received time off which has not been earned or have earned time for which time has not been taken. The method of repayment shall be mutually agreed to between the Employer and the employee.
- (f) Employees who leave part-way through the year will have adjustments made to their final pay to reflect whether they have received time off which has not been earned or have earned time for which time has not been taken. This earned day off schedule will only be continued in successor collective agreements if the Employer and the Union mutually agree to do so.

All other provisions of this collective agreement will be modified as necessary to provide for an earned day off without increase in benefits or decrease in productivity of employees under this Agreement.

7.07 Overtime Premiums

All time worked before or after the regularly established work day or in excess of the hours stated in Article 7.01 and Article 7.06 shall be considered as overtime and shall be paid at the rate of 200% of the employee's pro-rated hourly rate.

7.08

All time worked on a Saturday, Sunday, scheduled day off, or on a statutory holiday as provided in Article 8, or on a day granted in lieu thereof, shall be considered as overtime and paid at the rate of 200% of the employee's pro-rated hourly rate.

7.09

All employees requested to work overtime beyond the regular work day shall be allowed a one hour (1) paid meal period at the regular pro-rated hourly rate of pay, provided such overtime is in excess of two hours (2) work. The meal period may be taken before, during or after the overtime work as may be appropriate and mutually agreed.

7.10

Employees who are called in during regularly scheduled days off or vacations, or who are called back to work outside the regular working day, other than for regularly scheduled overtime, shall receive a minimum of four (4) hours pay at overtime rates, provided the employee reports for such work.

7.11

Regularly scheduled overtime shall mean overtime for which at least twenty-four (24) hours notice has been given. Emergency overtime shall mean overtime for which less than one (1) day's notice is given. Employees requested to work beyond their regular shift with less than twenty-four (24) hours notice, that is emergency overtime, shall work up to two (2) hours under regular overtime provisions. Work beyond the two (2) hour allowable period shall entitle the employee to not less than two (2) hours additional pay at overtime rates. The meal hour allowance in the foregoing Article 7.09, shall be separate and apart from the above premium provisions.

Employees who work overtime may elect to take time off in lieu of overtime pay but such time off must be taken at a time mutually agreed upon with the Employer. The length of time off with pay shall be equal to the straight-time equivalent to the overtime earnings. Overtime earned between January 1 and December 31 must be taken prior to December 31 of that same year, or will be paid out at the rates in effect when the overtime was earned.

For clarity, one (1) hour of overtime worked shall be equal to two (2) hours of straight time for the purposes of this Article.

Paid sick leave or extended sick leave shall not reduce overtime pay earned during a regular work day or work week during which such sick leave occurred.

ARTICLE 8 - STATUTORY HOLIDAYS

8.01

The Employer agrees to provide all full-time employees with the following statutory holidays, without loss of pay:

New Year's Day	Family Day	Good Friday
Easter Monday	Victoria Day	Canada Day
British Columbia Day	Labour Day	National Day for Truth and Reconciliation
Thanksgiving Day	Remembrance Day	Christmas Day and any other day that may be stated a legal holiday by the Provincial, Civic and/or Federal Government. The Employer further agrees that should one of the above statutory holidays fall on either a Saturday or a Sunday, and no other day is proclaimed in lieu thereof, the employees shall receive an additional day or days off, with pay, to be taken the working day succeeding the holiday or at a time mutually agreed by the Employer and the employee.
Boxing Day

8.02

Where, in the opinion of the Employer, work on Easter Monday is essential, another compensating day mutually agreed to, will be granted, and overtime rates will not prevail for the work performed on Easter Monday. Should the Employer, however, request the employee to work on the agreed day off, then overtime rates shall apply.

8.03

In the event that the holidays enumerated in the foregoing Article 8.01 occur during the period of an employee's vacation, an additional day's vacation with pay shall be allowed for each holiday so occurring.

Employees on layoff or other authorized leave, including, but not restricted to, weekly indemnity and long-term disability, shall not be entitled to statutory holidays.

ARTICLE 9 - ANNUAL VACATIONS AND LEAVE OF ABSENCE

- (a) Upon completion of six (6) months service in the first year of employment, an employee shall be entitled to receive a paid vacation of five (5) working days, which if taken, will be deducted from the total entitlement for that year. Such vacation shall be taken at a time mutually agreed with the Employer.
- (b) Each employee who completes one (1) years service shall receive a paid vacation of fifteen (15) working days. Payment for such vacation shall be at a current wage rate or six percent (6%) of gross earnings for the period in which vacation was earned, whichever is greater.

Each employee who completes five (5) years service shall receive twenty (20) working days paid vacation. Each employee who completes seven (7) years service shall receive twenty-five (25) working days paid vacation. Pay for such vacation shall be at the employee's current wage rate or eight percent (8%) of gross earnings for the period in which vacation was earned, whichever is greater.

For each completed year of service in excess of seven (7) years, each employee shall receive one (1) working day paid vacation, to a maximum of thirty (30) working days.

9.04

- (a) 21 and 22 days — eight percent (8%) of gross earnings or current wage rate, whichever is greater.
- (b) 23-27 days inclusive — ten percent (10%) of gross earnings or current wage rate, whichever is greater.
- (c) 28 days and over — twelve percent (12%) of gross earnings or current wage rate, whichever is greater.

Vacation entitlement based on gross wages will be adjusted once annually. Any additional vacation pay owed to employees will be included in the second pay period in January.

Any employee who is absent in excess of twenty-two (22) working days in the vacation year, exclusive of vacation leave, statutory holidays or leave of absence for union business to a maximum of fifteen (15) working days, shall be entitled to a vacation as set forth above but shall be paid for such vacation on the basis of the applicable percentage of gross earnings. Employees will be given the option of taking a reduced vacation entitlement at their regular rate of pay.

Senior employees shall be given preference in the selection of vacation periods. Employees who wish to take their vacation in two (2) or more periods instead of one (1) unbroken period may do so subject to the following:

- (a) Vacation schedules are established by the Employer consistent with the provisions of sub-paragraphs (b) and (c) below, and are subject to the operational requirements of BCCNM. Consistent with the foregoing, an employee's vacation request shall not be unreasonably denied. Once established, vacation schedules cannot be altered except by mutual agreement between the Employer and the employee.
- (b) Employees must submit their vacation preferences to the Employer by January 31 each year in order to exercise their seniority with respect to vacation preferences in that vacation year. The Employer shall notify every employee who has submitted their vacation preferences pursuant to this Article of their scheduled vacation by March 1 of each year.
- (c) Employees shall select their vacation periods in order of seniority as defined in this Agreement. However, only one (1) vacation period shall be selected by seniority until all employees in a department have selected one (1) period. Subsequently, all employees in the department who have chosen to take their vacation in two (2) or more separate periods shall select the second (2nd) and subsequent period in order of seniority.
- (d) Employees may choose to carry over a maximum of five (5) days vacation entitlement. These vacation carry over days must be taken by December 1 of the following year, and will not accumulate year to year.

9.07 Leave of Absence Without Pay

Any employee may apply for, and where possible receive, up to six (6) months leave of absence without pay for reasons other than sick leave. Permission for such leave must be obtained in writing from the Employer.

9.08 Bereavement Leave

- (b) The Employer agrees to post temporary vacancies created under Articles 9.09 or 9.10 if the vacancy is anticipated to exceed six (6) months in duration. All applications for temporary vacancies are subject to departmental requirements but permission to be temporarily transferred shall not be unreasonably withheld. 13.09

Employees on the Recall List shall have first rights to any vacancy in their former job classification or to a similar classification for which the employee is qualified, and the Employer will not hire for, transfer to, or promote to such a classification while an eligible employee is on the Recall List.

Severance pay shall be payable to an employee immediately upon termination or at a later date, as requested in writing by the employee, but no later than the end of the recall period as set out in Article 13.07.

ARTICLE 18 - GRIEVANCES

All grievances or disputes resulting from the operation of the Agreement or arising under specific clauses thereof, or in any way affecting relations between the Employer and the employees covered thereby shall be handled in the following manner. A grievance filed by an employee shall commence with Step 1. A grievance filed by the Union will be called a dispute and commence with Step 3. Discharge and discipline of five (5) or more days will move directly to Step 3 of the grievance procedure.

Bargaining unit members will first pursue any respectful work environment issue(s) through the Employer's Respectful Workplace Policy. To the extent any such issue(s) is not resolved through this Policy, it may be referred to the grievance procedure under the collective agreement.

STEP 1: If an employee believes that they have a grievance, the employee and their job steward will discuss the matter with their immediate supervisor within ten (10) days of the occurrence of the grievance.

STEP 2: The grievance will be reduced to writing within ten (10) days after an unsuccessful Step 1 discussion and will be presented to the grievor's immediate supervisor by the Job Steward and the grievor. The written grievance will set out the nature of the grievance.

STEP 3: If the grievance is not settled at Step 2, the grievance will be presented to the Registrar/Chief Executive Officer or their designate by the job steward and the union business representative within ten (10) days after an unsuccessful Step 2 discussion.

STEP 4: If the grievance is not settled at Step 3, it will be referred to Arbitration.

ARTICLE 19 – ALTERNATE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

At the conclusion of the discussions pursuant to the grievance procedure set out above, should a grievance remain unresolved, either party may refer the unresolved grievance to Alternate Dispute Resolution as set out below.

1. The purpose of Alternate Dispute Resolution is in keeping with the wish of the parties to resolve grievances as quickly as possible following the formal grievance procedure but prior to arbitration pursuant to Article 20 – Arbitration and Mediation.
2. Should either party seek a third party “non-binding option”, the parties agree to exchange a brief written statement including the following:
 - a. a summary of the grievance

3. The parties may provide to the Mediator chosen above, an Agreed Statement of Facts.

5. The Mediator’s recommendations will be privileged and will not be referred to at any time for any purpose.
6. The Mediator’s recommendations will be without prejudice and will have non-precedential value in any other proceeding.
7. The parties acknowledge that the credibility of this process depends upon both recognizing that this is a problem solving and dispute resolution process rather than an adjudicative process.
8. The cost of the Mediator’s intervention will be shared equally by the parties.
9. The continued credibility of the process depends upon both parties recognizing the scope of this Alternate Dispute Resolution process.

ARTICLE 20 – ARBITRATION AND MEDIATION

If a difference arises between the parties relating to the dismissal or discipline of an employee, or to the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this agreement, including a question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, either of the parties, without stoppage of work, may, after exhausting the grievance procedure established by this agreement, notify the other party in writing of its desire to submit the difference to arbitration.

The parties must agree on a single arbitrator from the list below, and the arbitrator must hear and determine the difference and issue a decision, which will be final and binding on the parties and any person affected by it.

Providing the parties so agree, the arbitrator shall also attempt to mediate a settlement of the dispute between the parties.

RE: Developing Testing

Current testing options are not doing a sufficient job in meeting manager needs for BCCNM Union roles.

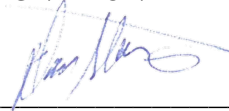

The Employer is intending to develop testing for its union roles to better meet the College's work requirements. In that regard, the College will develop an approach and seek Union input to ensure the approach is effective in the College's environment moving forward.

The intended timeline is to have these new tests developed and adopted by the end of December 2024. In the meantime, the existing testing approach will continue to be in place.

Signed this 26 day of January , 2024.
