Alexander Kulakov (out of area)

Hi,

My name is Alex. Since 2021, I've had the chance to serve as a Job Steward at the Victoria Claim Centre. I'm now running for Councilor for the Victoria Operations Area 1671.

If elected, my focus is simple: making sure members are informed, heard, and properly represented. You deserve to know what decisions are being made and how they affect your work and well-being. I also strongly believe in accountability. Your union dues should always be handled with care, transparency, and respect.

The labor movement matters - especially right now. I'm committed to standing up for fair working conditions, supporting our members, and helping strengthen our collective voice.

Thank you for your consideration.

Nicole Williams (out of area)

My name is Nicole Williams, and I'd like to be an Executive Councillor representing 910 Gov't, Victoria Operations.

I have been a Cope 378/Move Up member for over 30 years. I've worked in driver licencing (Mckenzie & Wharf St.), claims (Dunedin CC), and now Victoria salvage.

I became a job steward in 2013, and after a few years I wanted to expand my participation in the union through their government. In 2016 I became an executive councillor for Dunedin/Victoria Salvage. I've had the opportunity to shape and witness the results of our union's efforts in our workplaces and local communities. I've had the pleasure of serving on both the audit & VP remuneration committees.

I'm hard-working with a positive attitude and consider myself a valuable resource to my fellow members and the Executive Council. It would be my honor to represent the members at Victoria Operations at council meetings.
